

Syllabi Statement Regarding Religious Accommodation

The University of Maryland, Baltimore (UMB) to provide academic accommodation for a student if a student's observance of a sincerely held faith-based or religious belief or participation in a religious activity affects the student's ability to take an examination as scheduled or to satisfy another academic requirement. Request an accommodation in advance, before or at the beginning of each course, experiential learning opportunity, or other activity, whenever feasible. Students who want to request an accommodation per the III-5.10\(A\) UMB Policy Concerning the Scheduling of Academic Assignments on Dates of Religious Observance; Campus Space for Faith-Based or Religious Practices, it is essential that you correspond with your course instructor as soon as possible. For more information, please email your course instructor.
